BOB & Awarding of the „Hancock-Memorial-Award 2024“

The Breeding show conditions of the FCI and the DBC apply to all titles awarded in the DBC. The form value grading and the awarding of titles are also carried out in accordance with the applicable regulations of the VDH, the FCI and the DBC. With the award of the DBC CAC for the best male and female (from the intermediate class, open class and champion class) and the respective VDH entitlements for youth, veterans and in the intermediate class, open class and champion classes.

By registering, the exhibitor declares that they are familiar with the exhibition regulations of VDH e. V. and DBC and that they will observe them. The registration fees must be paid in any case, even if you do not participate, for whatever reason. If the exhibition cannot take place for any reason, §6k of the VDH e.V. exhibition regulations applies.

Only dogs for which proper registration has been submitted in a timely manner and which are registered in a breeding book of the corresponding breed recognized by the VDH and the FCI are permitted and included in the catalog. There is no legal claim to entitlements and winning titles!

The organizer accepts no liability for any damage, loss or theft.

The owner of the dog is liable for any damage caused by his dog, including bite injuries that it inflicts on people and other dogs.

According to the official veterinary order, the following provisions apply:

For this exhibition you need for

The Bouvier des Ardennes a general veterinary certificate and the DNA certificate regarding congenital shortened tail.

The Bouvier des Flandres - like visitor dogs -do not need a certificate.

A general veterinary certificate (VDH form from other large VDH exhibitions in Germany) is recognized in Kirchdorf if it is not older than one year on the day of the exhibition in Kirchdorf. The veterinary certificate is only available at the dog's entry check in the original or one from the veterinarian. Please keep the issued duplicate copy in your possession.

The vaccination certificate with valid rabies vaccination and the pedigree has to be brought for each dog!
